In launching the appeal for funds, Mrs. Ellen Tipton Buehler, finance chairman, thanked residents of Gettysburg and Adams county for their assistance in the past and expressed the hope that the present drive would meet with success.

"We regret that we have not yet been able to secure a full-time executive director with the Arnold fund which was made available for our use some time ago," Mrs. Buehler said. "We have followed up dozens of leads but have been unable to secure any applicant who would even come here to look over our situation."

Doing Community Service
"In comparison with other YW-Cas and the splendid equipment with which their personnel have to work, we have nothing to offer except a building. We shall continue to search, however, since we have assets that are invaluable—a board of directors composed of capable and conscientious women headed by Mrs. Richard A. Brown as president, and the loyal friendship of the people of Gettysburg and Adams county. With those and the knowledge that we are doing a work that the community needs we are not discouraged."

Veterans Asked To Furnish Data For County Honor Roll

The Adams County Honor Roll committee today appealed to countians for aid in completing the list of men and women who served in World War II.

J. Melchior Sheads, chairman of the historical file committee of the honor roll group, said that letters are being sent to all service organizations and to all communities asking those who might have had charge of individual honor rolls to forward the lists so that they might be compared with the list already compiled by the honor roll committee.

In addition veterans of armed force duty between December 7, 1941, and March 31, 1947 are asked to write to the Adams County Honor Roll Committee, Arbitration Room, Court House, Gettysburg, giving certain information about their service.

The committee hopes to set up a permanent file of all Adams countians who served in the armed forces during World War II. It hopes to have the name, address, date of induction, enlistment or call to active duty; separation date; army serial number; branch of service; component unit; grade or rank; length of service in the United States; length of foreign service; campaign in which the soldier, sailor or marine took part. If the person died or was killed in service, the committee wants to know that too.

As a convenience to its veteran readers, The Gettysburg Times publishes today on Page 2 a convenient coupon to be filled out and forwarded to the honor roll committee. Sheads pointed out that only through the cooperation of all will the honor roll committee be able to turn over to the county commissioners a complete honor roll—to be placed in the court house as a permanent memorial to World War II veterans—and a complete historical file of those served.

He pointed out that it is to a veteran's advantage to fill out the questionnaire or coupon for the file, as the record held by the county could be of assistance in obtaining future veterans' benefits.

Littlestown OPEN SERIES OF UNION SERVICES SUNDAY EVENING

The annual preaching mission conducted by the Littlestown Ministerium opened Sunday evening in St. Paul's Lutheran church with an estimated attendance of 300. All the ministers of the ministerium participated in the service and there was a good representation from each congregation in attendance.

The speaker for this service was the Rev. Dr. Carl C. Rasmussen, professor of systematic theology in the Gettysburg seminary, who used as his theme, "The Sense of the Presence of God Is the Power-House of Prayer," based on Revelation 3:20, "Behold I Stand at the Door and Knock."

Dr. Rasmussen said, "Prayer and all vital religious experience rests on the sense of the reality of the presence of God. Unfortunately," he said, "some people have only a second hand religion—not a second grade religion. Their religion is Christianity, but it is second hand. They heard about it; may even confess it orally, but it has not changed their lives." Continuing he said: "A religion becomes one's own, only when the sense of the presence of God dwells on him." Finally he said, (Continued on Page 6)

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—Bernard M. Baruch laid before senators today an 11-point program for "peace-waging" including a "rollback" in food prices, no wage raises and no tax cuts for two years.

Baruch was a witness before the Senate Foreign Relations committee on the Marshall plan for multi-billion dollar aid to Europe. He endorsed it, but told the senators: "Dollars alone will not save Europe nor win the peace."

Baruch then proposed his domestic program, saying "time has come to organize—to mobilize—for peace. It cannot be put off safely any longer. The time for courage and decision is here."

These are the major things he proposed in that "mobilization":

1. Reduce major food prices "in exchange for guaranteeing farmers an assured price for their crops for the next three years."
2. Stabilize wages in return for this rollback.

TWO ABOVE ZERO TODAY; COLDEST SINCE DEC. '45

This morning's official low temperature of two degrees above zero set a new low for the winter and made today the coldest here since December 24, 1945, when a reading of one degree below zero was taken. The previous low for this winter was set last Thursday with a reading of seven above.

Unofficial readings as low as 10 degrees below zero were reported in rural sections near town. The Arendtsville laboratory reported a reading of one degree above zero this morning.

A bright sun slowly pushed the thermometer up this morning. At 9 o'clock the temperature was seven above. Today's minimum of two above here made it the coldest January 19 since 1940, when the mercury dropped to one above zero on this date.

Here And There News Collected At Random

North Washington street grows in intensity as a bottleneck of confusion, fighting, hollering and screaming (with generous proportions of obscene language). Scarcely a day passes but what the first block, off Chambersburg street, is completely blocked by illegally parked vans, Greyhound buses, cars, trucks and miscellaneous other vehicles. Many motorists who use Race Horse alley find entrance into North Washington street blocked by a Greyhound bus or some other unloading vehicle.

At night the area is a conglomeration of Chinatown, little Harlem, Barbary coast and the New York waterfront. Residents in that area struggle in vain to sleep. The street and alley are arenas for fistcuffers. The language is atrocious.

The editorial page of the current issue of Collier's magazine contains the following paragraphs:

"One of the most significant and potentially potent combines in the Republican Presidential race is quietly in the making. It's between California's big, handsome Governor Earl Warren and Pennsylvania's buff, handsome Governor James Duff. Close personal friends, they are cement-

BULLETS DROP CLOSE TILT TO LEOPARD FIVE

Lafayette college's basketball team, 10 points ahead with four and a half minutes to go, barely managed to hold on as the rampaging Gettysburg Bullets came within three points of victory, 56-53, at Easton Saturday night before approximately 1,000 fans.

The Men of Bream proved their mettle as they came back from one of the worst court defeats in their history at the hands of the University of Pennsylvania Wednesday night to battle the heavily-favored Lafayette team to a standstill.

Five times in the first half the lead changed hands with the score tied at numerous other times. In the second period the Leopards gradually increased their lead to 10 points with but four and a half minutes to go. The Leopards "froze" the ball during the five minutes and one-half of play.

Set Scoring Pace
George Gorman and George Boehner, both Gettysburg high school products, were the offensive stars for field goals, most of them from outside, and three fouls, while Boehner scored a like number getting five field goals, most of them under the hoop, and three free throws.

Ray Nowak, a Pittsburgh resident, played a nice floor game and battled well under the boards. Bobby March, Dick Fidler and Bill Ogden stood out on the defense and picked up many important points.

Milne paced the Lafayette team with five field goals and three fouls. Next Saturday Mt. St. Mary's will play here.

Thurier Qualifies For 200-Goal Club
(By The Associated Press)
The American Hockey league's select "200 Goal" club boasts a new member—Fred Thurier, hustling forward of the Cleveland Barons.

Thurier became the third skater in the circuit's history to register 200 or more goals by scoring four over the week-end as the fast-moving Barons clipped the Buffalo Bisons and the New Haven Ramblers, 7-4 and 4-2, respectively.

The 30-year-old Thurier scored his 200th goal against the Ramblers last night to join teammate Lou Trudel and former Baron Les Cunningham in the select group. Cunningham registered 233 goals in the American league while Trudel has tallied 222 to date.

The west defeated the east, 34 to 20, the players enjoyed themselves tremendously, and the promoters woke up with a loss unofficially estimated at $20,000 up.

A throng of 3,063 sat in uncrowded comfort in Gilmore Stadium's 18,500 seat capacity.

Sports Roundup
By RUG HULLERTON, JR.
New York, Jan. 19 (AP)—Ladies' day has become an established institution in baseball; Larry MacPhail once added another feminine touch by staging a pre-game style show at Yankee stadium, who else but Ray (non-professional) Dumont could top that? To arouse more interest in his sandlot program—especially feminine interest—Ray will experiment this year, with having a "baseball queen" selected at each of the 24 district tournaments in Kansas. The 24 queens will go to the state tournament, where a state queen will be selected. Dumont has made a deal with Virgil Barnes, the old New York Giant pitcher who has become a portrait painter of some note, to do the portrait of each district queen and present it to the gal. If all works out according to plan, Dumont says he'll adopt it for every state tournament in 1949 and gather the state winners in Wichita, Kas., for the national tourney. And then Atlantic City had better look out for its beauty laurels.

Prediction: In spite of assorted rumors that have been making the rounds, Curly Lambeau will start his 30th season as Green Bay Packers coach next fall. Curly has been on the one job longer than any prominent coach in the football business, pro or college. Max Winter, who pays Jim Pollard $12,000 (plus a bonus and other inducements) for playing basketball for the Minneapolis Lakers, claims that Jim "does everything Hank Luisetti did, only twice as good."

Middleweight Charley Burley, who insists he took that job on a garbage truck because hoisting those big cans is good conditioning work, says he'd like to take on Doc Williams for the benefit of the polo fund or anything else.

Harrison's share for his sensational 72-hole 273, including a course record 65—seven subpar—in the opening round, will be $2,000 when the PGA cashes those blank checks.

The unusual action was taken because the three Negro golfers, all denied permission to compete, sued the PGA and the Richmond sponsors for $315,000—including potential prize money. The PGA delayed payment in cash, it explained, to avoid the possibility of the $10,000 prize total being tied up in litigation.

West Beats East; Promoters Unhappy

Los Angeles, Jan. 19 (AP)—Everyone was happy today except the promoters as another post-season football game went down into the archives for whatever interest it may yield for the future.

The west defeated the east, 34 to 20, the players enjoyed themselves tremendously, and the promoters woke up with a loss unofficially estimated at $20,000 up.

A throng of 3,063 sat in uncrowded comfort in Gilmore Stadium's 18,500 seat capacity.

Star of the game was Bobby Layne, who threw 27 passes, completed 15, had three intercepted and nine incomplete. His tosses gained 201 yards.

Shippensburg Teachers ranked third with a four-game unbeaten streak, followed by Mansfield and Edinboro with two triumphs each.

The Dukes had a tough time earning No. 12 over the week-end, finally tumbling Akron University 45-43 in the closing minutes. LaSalle was idle.

Temple and Muhlenberg picked up steam in quest for possible post-season bids, the Owls scoring 61-51 over North Carolina while Muhlenberg turned back Bucknell 57-47.

Pitt came to the end of a five-game winning streak, losing to Ohio State by a 74-56 count.

Quakers Lose
Pennsylvania bowed for the third time to an Ivy league foe, this time to Dartmouth 64-60. Penn State scored Carnegie Tech 47-39 and Scranton lost its 12th straight, after opening the season with a victory, by tumbling before Loyola of Baltimore, 75-41.

St. Joseph's college continued its luckless way, losing its seventh in 12 contests, to Rhode Island State by a 82-78 count.

In other games: Elizabethtown overwhelmed Towson (Md.) Teachers 74-50; Albright 57, Juniata 43; Lafayette 56, Gettysburg 53; Waynesburg 66, Thiel 53; Geneva 61, Washington 52; Jefferson 57, Haverford 50; PMC 53; St. Francis 56, Indiana 47; Dickinson 54, Lehigh 49; Susquehanna 52, Philadelphia Pharmacy 51; Millersville 42, Lock Haven 40; Swarthmore 67, Drexel 42; Moravian 74, Franklin and Marshall 46; Manhattan 61, Scranton 38, and Bloomsburg 56, King's college 45.

Sports Roundup
By RUG HULLERTON, JR.
New York, Jan. 19 (AP)—Ladies' day has become an established institution in baseball; Larry MacPhail once added another feminine touch by staging a pre-game style show at Yankee stadium, who else but Ray (non-professional) Dumont could top that? To arouse more interest in his sandlot program—especially feminine interest—Ray will experiment this year, with having a "baseball queen" selected at each of the 24 district tournaments in Kansas. The 24 queens will go to the state tournament, where a state queen will be selected. Dumont has made a deal with Virgil Barnes, the old New York Giant pitcher who has become a portrait painter of some note, to do the portrait of each district queen and present it to the gal. If all works out according to plan, Dumont says he'll adopt it for every state tournament in 1949 and gather the state winners in Wichita, Kas., for the national tourney. And then Atlantic City had better look out for its beauty laurels.

Prediction: In spite of assorted rumors that have been making the rounds, Curly Lambeau will start his 30th season as Green Bay Packers coach next fall. Curly has been on the one job longer than any prominent coach in the football business, pro or college. Max Winter, who pays Jim Pollard $12,000 (plus a bonus and other inducements) for playing basketball for the Minneapolis Lakers, claims that Jim "does everything Hank Luisetti did, only twice as good."

Middleweight Charley Burley, who insists he took that job on a garbage truck because hoisting those big cans is good conditioning work, says he'd like to take on Doc Williams for the benefit of the polo fund or anything else.

DUKES, LASALLE, SET PACE FOR STATE QUINTS

Philadelphia, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Dukes of Duquesne clung to top rank among Pennsylvania collegiate basketball teams today with LaSalle's Explorers—only a single victory behind.

The two quintets are among five unbeaten combinations in the Keystone state but Duquesne's 12-0 record one game longer than LaSalle's 11-0 string.

Shippensburg Teachers ranked third with a four-game unbeaten streak, followed by Mansfield and Edinboro with two triumphs each.

Today's Talk
By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
STILL AMONG FRIENDS

As this talk is being written I am hemmed in on all sides of my home. Snow is piled from two to three feet high, and over. And, after the great storm, the rain and sleet came, and now all is a lace-work of branches, like a silvered tapestry. Beautiful, but fragile, too, for great branches and smaller trees, are broken, bowed in grief, and many scattered.

For days I have been unable to get to my downtown office—but I have my library and my little noiseless typewriter. I am truly among friends with books surrounding me in all directions. From the floor to the ceiling, several thousands of them, and each one a selected friend. That's what William James called his books—selected ones, that were thumbed and read, and familiar.

That is what a library should be. No one need be totally alone with his beloved books about him. Many of these books of mine have been given, and inscribed to me, by their authors, and that has doubly endeared them. But there is an intimacy about a treasury book that blots out so much of the disappointments and tragic experiences of life.

I have an entire shelf in my library just about books and those who loved them. Books are so much more than bound pages of print. They are friends—the living substance of men and women. And there are a few favorite books that I like to get in every edition, from the first. It interests me to have them in a treasured tressure of my "Roadrunner" and "Dreamthorp." I have a dozen or more different editions, in various colors of binding and beautiful illustrations. The personality of a book, like that of a person, stands out in these changed garbs.

No one can measure the far-reaching influence of a good book. Lincoln colored all his great speeches and public papers with the influence of the Bible. He had few books in his youth, but they were read. Finding some old volumes of Blackstone's Commentaries among some discarded trash, undoubtedly led him to the study of law, which later led him into politics, and finally resulted in his nomination and election to the Presidency of the United States—and world-wide renown.

With books about you you are always in the midst of friends. Friends that endure!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "To Whom We Owe."

PLEDGE ENDS PEACE FAST FOR GANDHI
New Delhi, India, Jan. 19 (AP) — Mohandas K. Gandhi's hope of harmony in India lay today in the solemn pledge by religious leaders which ended his peace fast after 121 hours and 45 minutes.

The Indian patriot and Hindu spiritual leader drank sweet lime juice at 12:45 p. m. (2:15 a. m., Eastern Standard time) yesterday. It was his first nourishment since 11 a. m., Tuesday, when he began the fast, his fifteenth.

Last night, five hours after breaking his fast, the 78-year-old Gandhi told a big prayer meeting he did so on the "pledge and counsel" of friends from Hindu-led India and Moslem-led Pakistan.

Guarantee Friendship
They guaranteed, he said, "complete, unbroken friendship" among Hindus, Moslems and Sikhs. Gandhi said fulfillment of this pledge would double "my intense wish to live a full span of life doing service to humanity . . . at least 125 years, or as some say, 133 years."

His reference was to a resolution, signed a few hours before he ended his ordeal, in which communal leaders pledged their lives as an earnest of peace.

They adopted his seven-point program for social acceptance and safety of lives and property of Moslems in India. They set up a committee of 130, of all religions, to meet nightly for a review of progress toward these ends.

"Far From Well"
Four physicians reported Gandhi "far from well" and in need of rest and nourishment to get back to normal. He spoke to the prayer meeting by microphone system from his room in the home of millionaire industrialist G. D. Birla, where he sat cross-legged on a bed.

Delhi, which had observed a day of prayer for Gandhi Saturday, celebrated the end of his fast with speeches, slogans and fireworks. Bombay was the scene of peace demonstrations by Socialists, Communists and Moslems.

Anti-Saloon League To Get New Officers
Pittsburgh, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Anti-Saloon League of America, meeting here in its 35th national convention, studied today the choice of new executives to replace two top officials resigning to clear the way for younger men.

And younger members, who say they can carry on the "fight against liquor" better under a new name, put forth a proposal to change the organization's title either to the National Temperance Federation or the National Temperance League.

George W. Crabbe, of Baltimore, told delegates from 40 states yesterday that he plans to submit this week his resignation as general superintendent, a post he has held since 1940. "I am just as interested in the activities of the league as I always was and I will be as long as I live," Crabbe said in explaining that he was retiring because of "Mrs. Crabbe's health, and my age. I'm 72."

Later Bishop Ralph S. Cushman, of St. Paul, Minn., announced he was resigning as president because "duties in evangelism in 700 churches across the nation take up too much of my time to devote to the expanding anti-saloon program." He has been president for 10 years.

GOP UNITED IN PENNSYLVANIA
Harrisburg, Jan. 19 (AP)—Republican organization forces in Pennsylvania presented a united front today for the 1948 Presidential election campaign. The Democratic leadership in the state was moving toward the home goal.

GOP leaders, meeting in Philadelphia last week-end, slated State Sen. Weldon B. Heyburn, Delaware county, for auditor general, Charlie R. Barber, secretary of welfare, for state treasurer, and picked a group of delegates-at-large for the national convention headed by Governor James H. Duff.

A meeting of the Democratic state committee has been called for Harrisburg on February 2 to nominate delegates-at-large for that party's Presidential nominating convention but formal action on slating candidates for the two state-wide offices at this year's election will be withheld under party rules.

Both party organizations, however, face other factors to live up to the political campaign just getting under way.

On the Republican side, the Draft Eisenhower League, an independent group, has announced plans to enter Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as a candidate for the Presidential nomination.

FIRES DESTROY TWO CHURCHES
Greenville, Pa., Jan. 19 (AP)—Two major church fires which wrought an estimated $290,000 damages in Greenville and Slippery Rock over the week-end left both congregations eager today to begin rebuilding jobs.

A $140,000 blaze destroyed the big First Methodist church in Greenville yesterday morning two hours before Sunday school classes would have started. The first Presbyterian church of Slippery Rock burned to the ground Saturday night at a loss of $150,000.

"Of course, we'll rebuild," declared elderly Dr. J. A. Galbraith, pastor of the 1,300-member Greenville church.

ination in the state's Presidential preference primary. Republican state headquarters, while keeping a close check on Eisenhower sentiment in the state, has made clear the Draft Eisenhower League has no connection with the regular party organization.

"We're very fortunate the fire didn't start a couple of hours later." At Slippery Rock, the Rev. Lester J. Soerheide, said his official board "wouldn't let that ruin stay there." In both cities, all other churches hastened forward with an offer to share auditorium and other facilities with the fire victims. At Slippery Rock, church services yesterday were held in the high school since no other church in town was big enough to accommodate the Presbyterian congregation—the largest in Slippery Rock.

During the operation she manifested no sensibility, and has since stated that she felt no pain, except a little twinge towards the close of the operation, when the effect of the chloroform began to subside. It was immediately re-administered and complete insensibility restored.

REMINISCING
Time was I used to walk away
When wearied by the old folks' chatter
About some joy of yesterday.
To me such memories didn't matter.

I'd often heard the tales they told,
And I was living in the present.
I didn't care for pictures old
Or bygone days, however pleasant.

I wondered then how they could find
So much delight in times departed
And keep them constantly in mind.
For I was young and merry-hearted.

But now my youth has slipped away,
And drawing close to life's December,
And I have many a yesterday
Aglow with joys that I remember.

ing an alliance for a Warren-Duff ticket at the Philadelphia convention.

"From scratch, the combination starts with 170 votes, Warren 100; Duff 70. And working together, they should be able to pick up another 50 to 100 votes by June. Both personally and geographically, this East-West line-up will have a lot of appeal to Republican leaders. It's an alliance to watch. It has a lot behind it—including big money."

Reading, which this year celebrates its Bicentennial, will play host to 23 conventions during 1948.

Gettysburg, at one time, fared pretty well with conventions. One local business paid several hundred dollars a year for a "Convention Service" and through this, he alone secured several conventions each year for this fine community. Now, it appears that Gettysburg has lost its punch. Few conventions are held here.

GANDHI'S FAST TRIUMPHANT IN HOPE FOR INDIA

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Mohandas Gandhi's fast ("unto death," if necessary) to compel the Moslems and Hindus to cease the bloody strife which has threatened to plunge the Indian sub-continent into war, ended Sunday in triumph for the aged and frail little Mahatma when he received solemn pledges that his peace program would be carried out.

Of course it is probable that not even Gandhi himself believes this means the immediate inauguration of an unbroken era of brotherly love between Hindus and Moslems—between the new dominions of Pakistan (mainly Moslem) and India (largely Hindu). Bitter religious and racial differences which have been going on for centuries can hardly be wiped out in the twinkling of an eye.

Still, the Mahatma's achievement is great, for he has shocked untold millions into pausing and reflecting on the iniquity of communal strife. He has received promises from the government of India that all steps will be taken to alleviate the plight of Moslems within that predominantly Hindu dominion. And both Moslem and Hindu leaders have sworn that they will strive for communal peace.

An Historic Event

This has been an historic event in the stirring life of the most powerful figure among the Indian peninsula's four hundred millions—the man who, more than any other, has been responsible for winning his people's independence from England. Rarely has his country been so stirred.

On Saturday, when the doctors warned that Gandhi's life was in danger from fasting, the capital city of New Delhi took the day off to pray for his survival. All business was suspended, and thousands of feuding Hindus and Moslems joined in mass demonstrations which were calculated to convince the Mahatma that the religious hatreds were quenched. However, he clung doggedly to his fast (persistence being one of his outstanding characteristics) because he wasn't yet convinced that he had won his fight.

Then when Gandhi finally became convinced yesterday that India would be turned back to peace, the capital exploded into a celebration which ran far into the night. The Mahatma told a prayer meeting that he had broken his 121 hour fast on the pledge and counsel of friends from India and Pakistan.

(It would be interesting if one could look ahead and see how history deals with Gandhi, and with this sensational milestone in his 78 eventful years. I believe we are safe in assuming that future generations will give him a place among the outstanding spiritual leaders of all time. As for this generation, untold millions in India literally worship the "Mahatma" (a term of respect which means "great-souled one").

Gandhi always has condemned these demonstrations strongly, and even has frowned on the use of the term "Mahatma." However, so far as that designation is concerned, nothing could stop the Indians from employing it. Indeed I've heard Gandhi's own son, Devadas, who is publisher of the Hindustan Times of Delhi, persistently refer to his father as the "Mahatma." Actually Devadas generally says "Mahatma-Ji," that little suffix denoting reverence and affection.

After he had broken his fast yesterday Gandhi said that if the solemn pledge he received is fulfilled it will "revive with doubled force my intense wish to live a full span of life doing service to humanity." He added that by full span he meant "at least 125 years, or as some say, 133 years."

I can see the broad grin on Gandhi's wrinkled face when he said this, for he has a sense of humor, as I discovered on acquaintance. However, that's not a new idea with him, for he often has predicted that he will live to be 125. He also believes in reincarnation, and says: "I think we all come back here again if we are not pure enough to enter heaven."

Mrs. FDR To Help Truman Campaign

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Democratic high command has asked Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt to campaign for President Truman's election next November and has received assurances of her willingness to cooperate.

Confirming this, Chairman J. Howard McGrath told a reporter he also expects James A. Farley, who broke with the late President Roosevelt in 1940 over the third term issue, to become active again during the campaign.

The national committee has no expectation that Mrs. Roosevelt will stump the country, but plans to ask her to take "a dignified part" in the drive to return Mr. Truman to the White House, McGrath said.

Farley indicated recently that he would be available for the Democratic Vice Presidential nomination if party leaders were interested. While McGrath would not comment, other Democratic lieutenants said Farley is not one of those being considered now as a possible running mate for Mr. Truman.

"We have Christ's declaration of God's surprising nearness evidenced in the text, 'Behold I stand at the door and knock.' He is there whether we feel Him or not. God stands at the door of all believers; He stands at the door of man's heart even in the moment of his denial. You can't pray without the presence of God and when you get that sense of the presence of God, you can't keep from praying."
